

135th Anniversary of Macao Post and Telecommunications

The year 2019 marks the 135th Anniversary of Macao Post and Telecommunications. The establishment of the Macao Post goes back to 1884. In the early twentieth century, the former Macao Post took over the telegraph and telephone services, and was renamed as Post, Telegraph and Telephones Office (CTT Macao). The establishment of the Macao Postal Savings also dates from this period. Throughout its long history, CTT Macao has taken over a number of functions and some ceased to be under its control. CTT Macao has always adhered to the values of serving the public – “providing safe, high quality and diversified postal services to serve all industries and citizens in Macao” and “let the Macao telecommunication services be connected with the international standards, thus enabling Macao to encounter the future challenges”.

From 1 January 2017, telecommunications management has been under the administration of Macao Post and renamed as Macao Post and Telecommunications Bureau. It provides public postal service as well as regulates, supervises, promotes and coordinates all activities related to the telecommunications sector in the Macao SAR. Besides, it also assumes the function of a credit institution. CTT Macao offers services and functionalities that are in demand including traditional postal service, postal savings service, telecommunications regulator, E-Business and the Communications Museum.

CTT Macao has a long history. Despite the test of time and the vicissitudes of different years in Macao, it has been able to forge ahead and face up to various challenges. On behalf of the Board of Directors of CTT Macao, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all the seniors for their pioneering efforts in constructing and operating CTT Macao. At the same time, we are also confident that in the days to come, all of the staffs of CTT Macao will serve the community and business enterprises unselfishly with greater unity and professionalism. On this date of the 135th Anniversary of Macao Post and Telecommunications, we sincerely wish CTT Macao with flourishing and great success in business, in favor of the development of Macao Special Administrative Region.
